To avoid suspension, members who have not breached the Membership Regulations or Code of Conduct will be required to sign a declaration to confirm this.

18. Hearing by Disciplinary Panel

- 18.1 On receipt of a reference from the Disciplinary Review Panel, the Disciplinary Secretary shall, on behalf of the Disciplinary Committee:
- (a) notify the member concerned; and
 - (b) inform the member of the date, time, and place fixed for the Disciplinary Hearing.
- 18.2 The member concerned shall be given at least 14 days' notice of the date of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity of being heard in person before the Disciplinary Panel or to make further written representations if they wish to do so.
- 18.3 If the member does not attend the hearing, provided the Disciplinary Panel is satisfied that the member has been notified of the date, time, and place fixed for the hearing, it may proceed to hear the allegations in the absence of the member concerned. If no good reason is given for non-appearance, an adverse inference may be drawn by the panel.
- 18.4 A member may attend by telephone or online, subject to having given at least seven days' notice to the Disciplinary Secretary of their intention to do so.
- 18.5 The Disciplinary Review Panel will instruct the Disciplinary Secretary to present to the Disciplinary Panel the allegations against the member.
- 18.6 The member concerned may be accompanied by an observer of their choice or legal representative at the Disciplinary Hearing with at least two working days' notification to the Disciplinary Secretary prior to the Panel Hearing. That notification should include the name of the individual, the firm they represent, and the intended role of that individual in the Panel Hearing. An observer may be a fellow employee/colleague or Trade Union representative. In general, the role of the observer is defined as follows:

- (b) if it considers it appropriate, suspend the member from membership pending the conclusion of the disciplinary process.

19. Decision of Disciplinary Panel

19.1 If the Disciplinary Panel concludes that a member has committed a disciplinary offence:

- (a) it shall make a finding to that effect; and
- (b) it shall consider whether it is appropriate to impose a disciplinary sanction and, if so, what that sanction shall be;
- (c) may decide that a member has committed an offence under paragraphs 16.1 and 16.2, but that no further action should be taken.

19.2 Disciplinary sanctions which may be imposed under paragraph 19.1 are one or more of:

- (a) completion, within a specified period, of additional hours of CPD as determined by the Disciplinary Panel;
- (b) completion of the Institute's IntegrityMatters test, within a specified period as determined by the Disciplinary Panel;

Any membership suspension or expulsion decisions involving members with SPS' by the Disciplinary Panel will be referred to the Disciplinary Review Panel for a final decision on SPS suspension.

19.4 Unless the Disciplinary Panel determines otherwise, a member who receives a sanction under paragraph 19.2 (e), (f) and (g) must not during the specified sanction period:

- (a) stop paying the annual membership subscription and will not be entitled to a refund on any membership subscriptions that have already been paid

- (d) use any of the Institute's facilities; or

19.6 The decision of the Disciplinary Panel will be sent in writing via letter and/or email to the member concerned (whether or not it is also given orally) setting out brief reasons.

19.7 Should the Disciplinary Review Panel determine that a sanction applied by a Disciplinary Panel is too lenient or excessive, they may make an application to the Disciplinary Committee for the case to be re-heard by a Disciplinary Panel made up of different Panel members. The Disciplinary Review Panel must make this application within 14 days of an outcome being reached by the Disciplinary Panel.

20. Resignation and re-admission

- 20.1 The following provisions of paragraph 20 shall have effect subject to and without prejudice to the general discretion granted to the Board of Directors in 2.7 of the Institute's General Regulations wherein the Board of Directors is empowered to refuse to accept a notice of resignation given by a member.
- 20.2 A member who has been informed of a preliminary investigation into a disciplinary offence may not resign from the Institute until final determination under these Regulations of the matter being investigated, unless the Board of Directors accepts the resignation. If the member is permitted to resign in such circumstances, the resignation shall be treated as a "Disciplinary Resignation", which will be recorded on the member's record and may be published as indicated in Paragraph 24.
- 20.3 A member who is expelled or whose resignation is treated as a Disciplinary Resignation will only be readmitted to membership of the Institute in exceptional circumstances. Such applications will be treated as a new application and must be supported by not less than two MCSI members or Fellows. Notwithstanding other provisions of these Regulations, re-admission shall be at the absolute discretion of the Board of Directors and there shall be no appeal against refusal of re-admission.
- 20.4 A member who resigns from membership for any reason other than a Disciplinary Resignation may submit an application for re-admission. This will be treated as a new application for membership but any circumstances relevant to the resignation of the member may be taken into account by the Membership Committee when considering the application. The Membership Committee may impose conditions for re-admission which may include payment of any arrears of annual subscription any unspent previous disciplinary sanctions and other sums.

APPEAL AGAINST DECISION OF DISCIPLINARY PANEL

21. Making an appeal

- 21.1 A member who is not in agreement with the finding of a Disciplinary Panel or a disciplinary sanction imposed may apply to have their case heard by an Appeals Panel, as provided in paragraph 21.2.
- 21.2 A member who wishes to appeal must apply to the Disciplinary Secretary within 28 calendar days of the date on which the decision of the Disciplinary Panel was sent to the member concerned under paragraph 19.6. The notification to appeal must set out the matter appealed against and the grounds for appeal.
- 21.3 An application appeal will be considered by the Disciplinary Review Panel, who will report this matter in writing to the Disciplinary Committee who will consider whether one of the grounds of appeal has been met and, if so, refer the case to be heard by an Appeals Panel. Grounds for appeal are as follows:
- (a) CISI has applied its own rules or criteria improperly;
 - (b) CISI has not followed due process in relation to the disciplinary procedure; or
 - (c) Further information has become available since the original decision, which might have had a bearing on the outcome.

The onus is on the member to demonstrate why they consider that one of the above appeal grounds did not take place in the original disciplinary process. Disagreeing with the original decision is not sufficient grounds for an appeal.

22. Hearing of appeal

- 22.1 As soon as practicable, but in any event within 14 calendar days, after receipt of an appeal application, the Disciplinary Secretary shall notify the member concerned about whether or not their appeal application has been granted.
- 22.2 The decision by the Disciplinary Review Panel on whether or not an appeal application will be granted is final.
- 22.3 If an appeal application is granted, the member concerned shall be given at least 14 calendar days' notice of the date, time and place fixed for the Appeal Hearing.
- 22.4 If the member does not attend the hearing, provided the Appeals Panel is satisfied the member has been notified of the date, time and place fixed for the Hearing, it may proceed to consider the appeal in the absence of the member.
- 22.5 The Disciplinary Review Panel may appoint a member of the Institute; or an officer of the Institute; a solicitor or barrister to act as an advisor to the Appeals Panel.
- 22.6 The member may be represented at the Appeal Hearing by a person of their choice, which also includes legal representation

- 22.7 The Appeal Hearing will be governed by the procedures set out in Annex 4.
- 22.8 When hearing an appeal (and without limiting paragraph 22.7) the Appeals Panel may:
- (a) take into consideration the record of the proceedings before the Disciplinary Panel including evidence given before and the documents produced to the Disciplinary Panel;
 - (b) re-hear any witness called before the Disciplinary Panel; and
 - (c) hear fresh evidence.
- 22.9 The Appeals Panel may affirm, vary or rescind any finding or order of the Disciplinary Panel and may substitute any other finding or order that the Disciplinary Panel might have made.
- 22.10 The decision of the Appeals Panel will be sent to the member concerned in writing via letter and/or email within seven days of the conclusion of the appeal (whether or not it is also given orally), setting out brief reasons.
- 22.11 Once a decision has been reached by the Appeals Panel, the member will not be able to appeal the decision again.

23. Costs

- 23.1 If the Disciplinary Panel makes a finding that it is of the opinion that the member concerned has committed a disciplinary offence, then the CISI for their part in any disciplinary proceedings shall be entitled to an award of costs for the whole or part of the costs of administering their case, usually a minimum of £500. Administrative Sanctions issued by the Disciplinary Review Panel on behalf of the Disciplinary Committee may incur a lower cost of £100. Costs so ordered must be paid within 31 days of the date of the Disciplinary Panel's order (or such longer period as the Disciplinary Panel determines).
- 23.2 If a member who has appealed to an Appeals Panel as provided in paragraph 21.1 fails to pay costs as ordered by the Disciplinary Panel, the Appeals Panel may (whether or not the order to pay costs is subject to appeal) dismiss the appeal.
- 23.3 The Appeals Panel may confirm, dismiss or vary the costs as they may judge appropriate. Costs so ordered must be paid within 31 days of the date of the Appeals Panel order (or such longer period as the Appeals Panel determines).
- 23.4 Should the Appeals Panel decide to overturn costs already paid by the member, the member will be reimbursed within 31 days.

24. Publication and disclosure

- 24.1 If the Disciplinary Panel determines that a member is in breach of the membership regulations, unless the Disciplinary Panel determines otherwise, the decision:
- (a) may be published in the Institute's journal and on the Institute's website and may also be otherwise publicly announced to include the name of the member, the brief facts, the decision and any disciplinary sanction or in such other form or level of detail as the Disciplinary Panel may consider appropriate on a case-by-case basis;
 - (b) may be notified to the member's employer (if any).
- 24.2 The information referred to in paragraph 24.1 shall not be published or notified until the time for appeal under paragraph 21.2 has expired or any accepted appeal has been heard.
- 24.3 The Appeals Panel may make similar publications, disclosures and notifications to the Disciplinary Panel if it thinks it appropriate.
- 24.4 The Institute may disclose any information relating to a disciplinary offence (or alleged disciplinary offence) to:
